Giving Evidence Against Himself.

George Koehler was believed to have murdered a man at Cairo, Ill., but there was not a scrap of evidence against him, and for some time he was not even arrested. It was at length decided to entice him into inculpating himself. He was put into jail, in the same cell with a detective, who pretended to be a criminal and confess tended to be a criminal and confessed many imaginary crimes to his com-panion under a solemn pledge of se-erccy. He argued that almost any crime could be concealed, and thus gave the impression that he was won-derfully shrewd. Koehler fell into the trap, asked his advices, and gave him a circumstantial account of the murder. The missing body was found where he said he had buried it, and it seems certain that he will be hanged on the evidence that he has himself provided.

The Iowa Meteorite.

Prof. Thompson of the Minnesota State University has examined and reported on the great Iowa meteorite which fell last May. The day was cloudless, he says, when the meteorite passed through the air like a ball of fire, and with a rumbling, crashing noise. It was seen along its course for several hundred miles, terrifying the people greatly, and finally explodthe people greatly, and finally explod-ed, with two tremendous reports, near Erterville. Two large pieces fell two miles apart, penetrating several feet into hard soil, and many fragments were scattered. The entire weight was about 800 pounds, the largest mass weighing 470 pounds. The material was found to be chiefly iron.

THE CHINESE TRAUBLE

John F. Swift of California and W. H. Trescott of South Carolina have been appointed Ministers to China to arrange a new treaty with the Emperor. This looks to an early settle ment of the Chinese difficulty. For the people of this coast there is no nese question, but a Chinese evil Swift is a very able man, educated, traveled, politic. If Trescott is as good a man, no better appointments could have been made.

It is only by means of a new treaty with China, that Chinese immigration can be checked. The recent decision by Judges Hoffman and Sawyer of the U. S. Circuit Court, at San Francisco, shows that clearly. In rendering the decision in the Parrott case declaring unconstitutional the prohibition of the employment of Chinese by corporations, Judge Hoffman said:

"If the right of the Legislature to restrict corporations in the manner intended by the law in question should be admitted, there would be no limit to the harm which might be accomplished. The Chinese are here, and are guaranteed all the benefits of trade or guaranteed all the benefits of trade or travel, by solemn treaty, which are enjoyed by any other foreigner. If the Legislature has the power to declare that corporations shall not employ Chinese, it possesses the same right to declare that Germans, Irish or Americans shall not be employed; further, they could exercise the right to declare that employes of corporato declare that employes of corpora-tions shall be of a certain creed. If the facts of the law's enactment were not so plainly before us, it would be difficult to believe that a Legislature difficult to believe that a Legislature could declare a law so seemingly a contemptuous breach of treaty obligations." In conclusion, Judge Hoffman remarked: "It is generally admitted by the best classes on this coast that the unrestricted immigration of Chinese is a menace to our peace and even to our civilization. It is an evil, however, which the abrogation or amendment of the Burlingame treaty alone can remedy. The senseless cry of 'The Chinese must go' is an insolent denial of the authority of the United States and assume the senseless. United States, and any measure of police or health laws or State legislation made in the spirit of that ery will be promptly set aside by the courts of the United States."

J. W. Gally, a talented medical man who used to live in Eastern Nevada, tells a little of what he knows about snakes, in the last number of the Argonaut. He says there is a little brown snake in Nevada whose bite is more poisonous than that'of the rattlesnake. The Doctor says the belief that's rattle-snake will always raise an mewith its tail before striking is a mistaker a They will generally rattle when disturbed, but not always. Mr. Gally states that he has frequently annoyed it with sticks, etc., without drawing out any rattle.

The Doctor suggests no other remedy for snake bites than whiskey. This is a medicine than whiskey. This is a medicine that can be found most anywhere in Nevada. A man may travel through this State for years and never see a rattlesnake. But it is always best to rattlesnake. But it is always best to be prepared for emergencies. This is why an abundant supply of whiskey is always taken by camping parties who ner's jury, and speaking of her "vices," tempt the dangers of the sage-brush. It is for snake bites.

WHAT NIHILISM IS.

Few persons seem to have a definite idea of what Nihilism means. The word is derived from the Latin "nihil," ning "nothing." Nihilism then meaning "nothing." Nihilism then is literally "nothingism." And such in reality is its meaning. The Russian Nihilists along the destruction of all existing detail and political institutions. It is their purpose to leave none of them remaining. They are oclasts. Meaning to destroy everything, they have no thought of reconstruction. They would sweep away all law, all government, all religion, marriage, morality, and the rights of property. Believing that all is bad, they would pull down everything.

Nihilism is a peculiar fanaticism, a strange mental disease which seems to Nihilist dares everything, sacrifices everything for his cause. He stops at it, there should be a notable decrease have its germs in Russian blood. A nothing. Assessination is to him of crime in Nevada after the execution often a sacred duty. His own life he is prepared to lay down at any time. No one knows the numerical strength of cosness, their secrecy, their that doubt no longer remains. They are strong in their boldness, their secrecy, their ply for a policy in any accident insur-ance company of which we were man-ager, his risk would be respectfully but firmly declined.

SQUARE LOCATIONS.

Some of the changes which it is proposed to make in the present mining laws would be changes for the worse. The "square location" is one of these. The present law prescribes the limits of a local size of these than 10 roller-towels. the limits of a lode clain as 600x1500 feet. Under the present law the miner can follow the dip of his vein wherever it may lead him, so long as he keeps within the end lines of his hour.

with his match some day, and Bogar-dus has experienced the truth of the observation. He was lately defeated by a mere boy, Fred Erb, Jr., of St. Joseph, Mo. The shooting was at 100 pigeons each, from five traps. The men not knowing from which trap the bird to be shot at would fly. At the close the score stood: Erb 93, Bogardus'83. The St. Jo. Herald says: "The enthusiasm on the result cannot well be imagined. The crowd pressed forward with outstretched arms to take the victor by the hand, and some were satisfied to even touch him. He was a bigger man than Grant."

The "Memoirs of Metternich," just published, throw a flood of light upon the character of the first Napoleon. There can be no doubt that Napoleon was not a truly great man. Though ossessed of an unconquerable will, a fine intellect and wonderful personal magnetism, he had a selfish and bad heart. He said this to Metternich, in that famous interview at Dreaden: "I have grown up on battle fields, and a man like myself cares little for the life of a million men."

They belong to the Liliputian Opera Company, and had been lovers in mimicry and reality, for several years. Epitaph on a Boston Girl.

Two Boston women of "culture" came across an old-fashioned mile stone in the suburbs. One read the inscription "1. m. from Boston," and the other said: "Here is a grave, perhaps of some young girl, who wished it written on her tombstone, 'I'm from Boston'. How simple and sufficient!"

The GAZETTE has been the daily that most trequently is carried eastward and returned in the evening. But san Francisco, Sacramento and other papers also, do not reach us at the time they should. I have been at some pains to trace the cause of this annoyance, and believe that I have ascertained the real source of it all. The news matter is overhauled on the train. When this mail is large, the mail agent has not time to assort all the papers between short stations. Let the Reno postmaster put our mail all in the letter sack and this annoyance will be

RAILROAD TALK.

We hear occasionally much talk of railroads from this place to southern points, but we have not seen any of the road builders here. Mr. Davis of Esmeralda (if he and his associates mean business) will receive every encouragement this town can give.
There are of course diverse opinions of this contemplated road, yet all would hail it as of timely benefit to this town's continuance. There is much talk to the effect that the C. P.
R. R. company will company the much talk to the effect that the C. P. R. R. company will commence the work of moving their machine shops from this place in thirty days. This is mere speculation. Superintendent Towne said it would be late in the summer or early in the fall before this removal. There are, however, quite a number of railroad men who believe that the shops will be moved before September 1st.

The "15" puzzle has invaded Wads We have a bad attack and the tidal point has not yet been reached. Men who have not the little bex and its abominable contents use eards. Sober business men are guilty of spending hours on this silly device. A fisherman arranged this morning to go trouting. At noon he did not have the last two lines in their proper have the last two-lines in their proper order. At supper he looked savage, with sundry indications of internal discontent and melancholy. A teamster near by said that he did the puzzle, but, "by —," couldn't tell for his life how the thing was done. The landlord's timely intervention saved the teamster from a fisherman's death. Lively Scene in Court.

In the District Court at Carson Monday, Attorneys Ellis and Soderberg were engaged upon opposite sides of a case on trial. Soderberg remarked to the Court that Ellis was trying to misrepresent facts, whereupon Ellis threw a glass tumbler at his on Ellis threw a glass tumbler at his learned friend. Judge King had left the bench and stepped into an adjoing room, but the crash of breaking glass brought him back in a hurry. The glass had missed its aim, Soderberg was in his seat pale but composed, and Ellis had again plunged into his argument. The Judge knew somebody ought to be fined for contempt but couldn't tell who in the mischief was to blame. No one was fined and was to blame. No one was fined and the trial proceeded without further

An Arrest.

Constable Avery last evening received instructions from the Virginia Chief of Police to arrest James Burke and Mrs. Orndorf on a charge of rob bery. The parties came down from the Comstock about a week ago, and Avery has had his eye on them ever since. The officer found them occupying the same room last night and took them into custody. They are now lodged in jail. An officer from Virginia will be here to-night to take charge of the ccuple and convey them back to the Camstock. No further particulars are known by the authori-ities here.

Visitors to Pyramid.

The flattering reports from the Jone & Kinkead have awakened fresh interest in Pyramid District. There has been considerable travel in that direction lately. Matt Canavan, Justice Moses, and Capt.
